FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Coronavirus Advisory & Airport Closures 25 May 2020

Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands (25 May 2020) The Cayman Islands Airports Authority (CIAA), which owns and operates the Owen Roberts International Airport (ORIA) and the Charles Kirkconnell International Airport (CKIA), continues to closely monitor the developments of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic and any potential impacts to the Cayman Islands, its surrounding borders and operations of the Airports.

In an effort to slow the spread of the Coronavirus, the Cayman Islands Government announced on 7 May 2020 that Owen Roberts International Airport and Charles Kirkconnell International Airport will remain closed for international passenger flights for a further temporary period, until 31 August 2020 at 11:59 p.m. During this extended restriction period, domestic, cargo, courier and emergency medical flights will continue to operate, in addition to any air bridges or repatriation flights that the Cayman Islands Government approves.
